

After-Hours Emergencies:

The following constitutes an animal emergency to which our Animal Control Officers will respond after hours:

- Any injured domestic animal when an owner is unknown or unavailable
- Any dead domestic animal
- Sick or injured wildlife if an imminent life-threatening hazard exists to either the animal or a resident
- Cruelty, abuse, or neglect of an urgent nature
- Urgent situations in which Police/Fire/EMS require the assistance of an ACO
- Animal to human bites or rabies suspects
- Live bats encountered in living quarters

To report an Animal control-related issue in Bloomfield, please call the Bloomfield Police Department non-emergency #973-680-4141.

To report an Animal control-related issue in a township we service, please contact the local Police Department's non-emergency line.