Financial Assistance Programs

The Bloomfield Division of Human Services is promoting the following financial assistance programs for Bloomfield residents:

HOMELESSNESS PREVENTION FUNDING

Assists Essex County residents with back rent, mortgage, security deposits or PSEG past due balances. In order to qualify for assistance residents must be able to sustain paying their bills going forward.

Call 973-680-4017 for further information on funding availability

ESSEX COUNTY LIMITED MORTGAGE ASSISTANCE AND FORECLOSURE PREVENTION PROGRAM

To help Essex County residents who have exhausted all other retention options to bring their mortgage current on their primary residence and avoid foreclosure. Can offer up to $2,200 per household.

Contact the East Orange Community Development Corporation at 973-266-5315
or Montclair Salvation Army at 973-744-3312 for assistance

CORONAVIRUS EMERGENCY RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The program will provide a grant to help income-eligible residents pay their rent during the Coronavirus pandemic who are in jeopardy of being homeless. The Emergency Rental Assistance Program will help eligible residents pay up to six months of their rent.
